

BAJA STUDIOS

SHIPPING COORDINATOR

A shipping coordinator allows production to keep control of everything that crosses the border under the temporary importation program (everything brought in under this program must be returned at a later date with original paperwork). A local shipping coordinator is already familiar with the procedures and agents required to import and export film equipment and materials.